DREADNAUGHT

Part of the Nelson Room is the Dreadnaught, complete with Regency-style balconies and double-height ceilings.

Ornate cornicing decorates the ceiling and the walls are lined with 19th century artwork depicting Greenwich, and indeed the Tavern itself, across the last 300 years.

The Nelson Room & Dreadnaught can be combined for bigger functions.

All set ups can be made bespoke to your event.

NELSON ROOM

The most awe-inspiring space in the building, The Nelson Room consists of the main Nelson Ballroom and the adjacent Dreadnaught bar, with bi-fold doors that can be fully opened to create one large open space or closed to create spaces suitable for smaller events. Situated on the first floor of the venue, the space has exceptional views across the River Thames; from Canary Wharf all the way over to the City.

All set ups can be made bespoke to your event.

HAWKE & HOWE

The Hawke & Howe room is perfect for standing events and larger private dining groups. With stunning views across the river, and floor-to-ceiling windows, the Hawke & Howe is nothing short of breath-taking.

The Hawke & Howe has its own large and fully stocked bar, bathrooms and cloakroom facilities so everything you need can be found without leaving the room. The furniture is all changeable or can be added to – depending on your preferences – and the space has a new state-of-the-art sound system which allows you to play your own music throughout the speakers.

All set ups can be made bespoke to your event.
